Clearly Prepared is a North Vancouver, BC based company that specializes in Emergency Preparedness and First Aid Kits, with "A PLAN". Our vision arose when we set out to find an emergency kit for our own families and discovered that there wasn't anything in the market that provided us with the necessities we needed for survival, combined with the information and plan the we needed to be prepared.

Remember, having your emergency kit is only part of the process to being prepared. Your Clearly Prepared custom kit also includes all the necessary forms, checklists, and information to give you peace of mind in knowing that all aspects of your safety and survival are covered. Going through the personal health needs and information of each family member, and getting prepared in all aspects, will help to ensure each individual's survival in the event of a catastrophe or emergency.
